Leave the hustle and bustle of the city behind for a memorable bonding experience, whether you're coming with a small group or as a full corporate crew. The Lakeside at Edith Macy Center is where you can truly emerge yourself in nature. Edith Macy Center's lakeside location makes it easy to relax and remember the things you love about your team. After all, it's tough to hold on to the challenges of the day to day when you're looking out over the lake or bonding beneath the trees.

Situated along the grassy shores of our very own Lake Kinderogen, sits the Kinderhaus. This 3,000 square foot, seasonal building is included in all Lakeside rentals and offers an indoor option for meeting and dining. With 3 1/3 of the walls being windows and doors, you'll find there is an ample amount of fresh air.

This natural beauty can be transformed into the location of your dreams for your special event. Inside, the natural elements such as wood beams and majestic stone fireplace are sure to wow your guests! We can also set your event outside, under the sun and stars or rent a tent on the grassy area.

Team Building

Team building events are a great way to strengthen workplace camaraderie once you make it back to the office, so why not spend a day building a raft on the shores of Lake Kinderogen or team up for a scavenger hunt and search the surrounding woods for clues. The grassy lakeside areas provide an ideal setting for outdoor activities such as Scout Skills Survival Competition or Tailgating Olympics.

Team building and experiential learning programs of all variety and scope are a specialty of Edith Macy Center. Take advantage of the experiential elements by the lake and customizable programs to meet your group's own goals.

The Lakeside at Edith Macy Center is a fun, versatile location for your next business or personal event!
